HUNTER KIDS SING

Hunter Kids Sing was formed in 2007 as a junior choir for Hunter Singers, giving students from Year 4 to Year 6 in government schools across the Hunter region the opportunity to sing in a regional choir.

The group is affiliated with Sing NSW and conducted by Natasha Ryan with assistance from Nathan Faulkner and Ellenor Hayes.

Hunter Kids Sing participated in the Sing NSW concert in the Sydney Opera House in August 2007. The group has also performed concerts with Hunter Singers.
